- On 7 November 1950, about 3,000 armed troops fell in for review in the area of the Rathenow (N 53 1/2 15) Wald Kaserne I on the road to Berlin. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were identified in the billeting area. A fragment of an envelope addressed to a soldier of [REDACTED] postmarked 12 October 1950, was found at the installation.
 - On 7 November about 1,500 unarmed troops fell in for review at the Wald Kaserne III near the Rathenow-Nord railroad station. Most of the soldiers were young and wore new uniforms and boots. [REDACTED]
- * Comment. Wald Kaserne I is believed to be the Kraftfahrer Kaserne or Natzmer Kaserne and Wald Kaserne III the Infanterie Kaserne on Breitscheidstrasse near the Rathenow-Nord railroad station. The strength of the troops observed indicates that all elements of the 6th Arty Div, which had been in Altengrabow for summer training, were back at the post at the beginning of November. [REDACTED] The soldiers in Wald Kaserne III may have been recruits.
